Minister Profile:

My training has been in the fields of Art, Interior Design, and Architecture. I am a graduate of Lynn Andrews Center for Sacred Arts Training and an Ordained Minister. As a Shaman and Spiritual Minister, I assist clients in redesigning their lives, re-building and remodeling their physicality, conditioned thought forms, and emotions in order to find and express their true spiritual nature. I guide them in removing the “walls” and “barriers” that are no longer needed, reinforcing their physical foundation, and expanding their interior space where energy can flow unobstructed and unhindered. I encourage clients to swim to the depths of their inner ocean in order to discover and revitalize their special gifts and talents, to empower their creative development and heart-knowing, and to create space for these to live and thrive in their lives.

I provide individual consultations by telephone or one on one, email oceanpathways@cox.net for an appointment.
