Havi Mandell

Havi Mandell, PhD, LCSW is an intuitive, visionary artist connecting with the Divine Feminine, Intercreativity® and Intentional Creativity® Coach and Teacher, and transpersonal therapist. She integrates shamanic and kabbalistic spiritual work, reiki and polarity therapy, intentional creativity®, intuitive painting, and creativity coaching. She is a Yoreshet, legacy keeper, for a feminine lineage of Kabbalistic teachings. She graduated from LACSAT in 2002 and has worked with shamans from different traditions. Havi seeks to live each day in radical amazement and to embrace life and be embraced by life. Her work is dedicated to facilitating others to find paths of healing, meaning, and sacred sovereignty, and live and express the fullness of their creative soul. She loves to help creatives bring artistry to every moment of their lives. She has presented nationwide on mind-body healing and creative process, and, with Shiloh Sophia McCloud, has taught thousands of women kabbalah, intentional creativity, and spiritual expression through the Red Madonna program. She is working on a book on Intercreativity®. www.havimandell.com
