Sacred Work

Havi is an energy alchemist. She dances with the interweaving fibers of mind, body and spirit - enlivening, untangling, and inspiring these luminous fibers to weave your life's tapestry into an alchemical masterpiece. She illuminates and honors the stories carried in each thread of experience. She helps replace the frayed fibers of fear and limitation with threads of beauty and possibility.

Havi weaves the science of modern psychology, the ancient wisdom of shamanism, and her skills choreographing and harmonizing the energies of life to guide her clients on a path of healing and creative transformation.
