Sacred Work

I am very proud of my many years of recovery from alcohol and drug abuse. As a person who understands the problems of substance abuse, I have counseled and sponsored many women during their own journeys of recovery from drugs, alcohol and gambling addictions. When others find their own spiritual foundations, we continue counseling through the means of the shamanic journey which I facilitate. I also do distance healing work with the mind and heart to heal mental/emotional wounds.

As an artist I create abstract paintings incorporating photographic images with light forms frequently seen through crystals. These reflect my art training in portraits, light study and life drawing knowledge. As a writer and storyteller, I use my talents as a Dreamer to bring the reader or listener on a journey with me. I have just completed my first book of poetry, Easy and HBomb which is available at www.authorhouse.com. Click here to view my webpage at authorhouse and to read more about my work and purchase a copy of my book.

Future Projects

One day I will welcome you to a spiritual home, a place of gathering that goes beyond the traditional religious houses of worship we have known. This place will be fun and happy, and totally unconventional! I will be your Ministerial guide but we will all contribute to the Divine experience!
