

Dear Friends,

When we called in the Thunder Beings at this year's Joshua Tree Gathering, a bridge was created between the higher levels of consciousness and the levels of physical reality. You can use that bridge to connect with the work that we did at Joshua Tree as you move to the highest, clearest and most pure aspect of your being, and I invite you to join me on this extraordinary journey of spirit.

We are at a point in history where unparalleled changes are taking place all over the world. Huge growth is occurring, and huge difficulties are presenting themselves. This happens because just as there is light in the world, there is, of course, darkness to define the light. Always remember that: it is the darkness which defines the light. When you are confronted by darkness, you move fully into the bright light of higher consciousness. That is where you discover and process what it is you, and we, need to know.

It would help so much for you to listen to the teachings that I gave at this year's Joshua Tree event, and we have gone to extra effort to make the CDs of the gathering available now. If you have a drum, you can use that drum as you listen to the CDs and experience the teachings. It will tune your drum to this new frequency of vibration at the same time as you tune yourself and open yourself to new teachings.

You use your drum to call the essence of the Thunder Beings. You do not call in the Thunder Beings, and this is a very important distinction for you to know. You call in the essence of the Thunder Beings. You call in the layers of consciousness within which they grow, which is where you find the rainbow bridge that the Sisterhood of the Shields helped to create between the higher levels of consciousness and the levels of physical reality at this year's Gathering. You call in that state of being, and then you walk across the bridge between the world of spirit and the world of everyday life to expand your understanding for what is going on in the world.

When you move into these higher levels of consciousness, it is critical that you do your homework. Study what it is you want to learn or accomplish. It is time for you to make very clear decisions about where you are in your consciousness, what you want to teach people, what you want to share with the world. It is important to make sure that you know what you're doing, and I am here to work with you if you would like.

The main thing is that you do your homework. Know what it is you are trying to say, and choose your words carefully so that when you speak, you use the words that truly convey your meaning. We often become so careless in our use of language, and this is part of why we have such great misunderstandings among people. So make the extra effort to know the different senses and uses of the words that you use and then say what you mean with clarity and courage. Do research to learn as much as you can about what you are trying to say or accomplish. Do research to find out what others are saying about the same thing so that when you speak, there is no confusing you with anyone else. With all of our modern technology, we have the resources of all of humanity at our fingertips if we would but learn how to use them properly. If ignorance ever was an excuse in this world, there is no longer any excuse for ignorance. As you rise above the ignorance of our everyday lives, you gain so much clarity and good feeling, and a whole new world opens.

You need commitment to focus on your target, take aim, pull back the bow, and then shoot your arrow, knowing you will hit the bull's-eye with every shot. To hit the bull's-eye requires total commitment of your spiritual and physical being. You need only the commitment to walk down the path through the gateway into your true destiny. It is a process of gathering. You gather your emotions, your mental strength, and your abilities as you would gather sheep. It can be a long process, but your commitment gives you endurance. It is the next step after defining your act of power. Materialize your dreams and begin to live them. Build that magnificent dream lodge within you with total commitment.

("Commitment" card, The Power Deck)

All of us can use the recordings of this year's Joshua Tree, "Calling In the Thunder Beings, The Art of Seeing," those who were there and those who were not. Listen to the tapes carefully. As you cross the rainbow bridge to higher levels of consciousness, I hope you will share your energy with me.

Great Spirit, Mother Earth, powers of the four directions, power animals, the Ancients, and all the beings of light that love us, Great Mother, as we see you at the heart of our world, we give thanks to you for our life force, and the gifts of our physical being. With this gift of life, you have presented with the mirrors of existence that elevate our soul toward the highest light. Every day we are faced with these reflections, and they bring us great pain and great joy. In our pain, we forget we are on a great journey. We struggle with the confines of our ignorance, desperately searching for a way to tear away the veils that cloud our vision.

Great Mother, help us on our journey of discover. Give us power to continue to seek. Help us to find joy and courage as we navigate through the dense fog of confusion. Help us, Great Mother, to understand your needs and what it takes to heal our precious body.

In our commitment to you, we make a commitment to ourselves, to our own enlightenment, to our own process of forgiveness and wisdom. In this forgiveness, I make a pledge from my heart to find an end to this weakness and pain, to find a harmony and a balance so that we may more successfully walk with a foot in the physical and a foot in spirit.

Oh, Great Mother, I humble myself to your power. At this moment, I visualize golden white light surrounding me and enabling me to move into my shaman center, into my place of power, a perfect reflection of your innocence. I see the shield that you carry shining like a beacon in the darkness. Your shield is made of trust and faith: Trust that each and every one of us will build a rainbow bridge across the abyss of darkness; Faith symbolized by each of us crossing that bridge, held forever in your light.

Great Mother, we give thanks for your blessings. Ho!

In love and spirit,
Lynn
