MASTER TUTORIAL 3 – The Hoop of Air

Luminous Fibers: Building Energy as You Learn How to Move into Higher Levels of Consciousness

July 27 – August 9, 2012

Registration Opens June 27th!

Note: you do not have to have taken the earlier Master Tutorials in this series to participate fully in this course. The teachings of each Master Tutorial are carefully designed to be full and complete within the parameters of each one.

Dear Friends:

Throughout time and across the globe, shamans and mystics everywhere have always known that dreaming is a conscious activity, not something that our minds do to entertain themselves while our bodies sleep. In this Third Master Tutorial, you will be given the framework and tools to begin your journey into the magic and mystery of conscious dreaming.

You will learn how to build energy for dreaming by working with your luminous fibers, the luminous shine around your body which in actuality is one long fiber that weaves throughout your being. This 'luminous egg' is very real. It has been photographed through the advances in our technology, and you can use it to heal yourself, Mother Earth, and in your work with others.

In this course you will:

- Learn how to move into your dream body as you begin to balance between east and west on the sacred wheel.
- Learn from your own dreams to receive inspiration, in the north of the wheel, and then move into the center of the wheel of life, and into the south where you manifest your inspiration into the physical world.
- Learn how to access your dream body through your luminous fibers.
- Begin to perceive the power and energy of the creative life force and then learn to receive that same creative force, energizing you with new strength.
- Work with the Shaman Dance of Power.
- Use the creative energy of your luminous fibers to heal energy rifts in the world around you.

Please refer to the "Fees,Logistics,and Materials" link in the right-hand drop down column on the Master Tutorial page on my website for details on how the Master Tutorials work. There is also an audio mediation, "Luminous Fibers," which is part of the teaching materials of this Tutorial. You will be given access to this MP3 at the time that the Tutorial goes live on July 27, 2012.

I look forward to working with you on this truly mystical journey. The Sisterhood of the Shields sends you a warm welcome! Please come to the Master Tutorial pages of my website, Master Tutorials, to learn more and to register.

In love and spirit,
Lynn Andrews
