March In Spirit

Teaching

Dear Friends,

Still in snow, cold, winter air, the beauty of stillness, the force of serious winds and storms...slowly you are awakening from the long sleep of winter. When I say "sleep" I mean a gathering of your sacred bundles, the bundles of behavior, sacredness and accomplishments that you have made over the past year. You now are moving into the last part of winter, the last part of this season, so the blessing of your bundles is very important. Soon you will be in the perpetual motion of creativity and curiosity. But now is the time to purify the bundles that you have already created.

Make bundles that are symbolic and/or real for all that has happened in the past year that has deeply affected you. Discover the guardians of each of those bundles. In other words, define your dilemmas, accomplishments, joys, pain, etc. Make a bundle for each one. Set your bundles in a circle around you. Bless them with your pipe or anything else that is sacred to you. Burn sage and sweetgrass to purify and bless your bundles. Find the guardian for each bundle. Put your bundles on your altar for the coming year. You have made these agreements in this past year and now you can look at them and bless them and honor them, whether they are positive or negative. They are choices you have made, and if you don't like what you see, you can change it. Simply see things with a brighter light. Remember in this next year to follow your joy.

It is time to remember your medicine, and all the beautiful ways you have learned. With stress we forget what we have learned and look for new things instead of deepening what we already know. Move into the eye of the tiger in your own soul and see your life through that brilliance.

Power Deck Card #17 - Perfection

Dream your passion. Fly away. Go through the hoop of your innermost fears and desires. Meet them and conquer them. What pain from childhood have you not dealt with? Move into the wound of your most secret fears, and find the seeds of wisdom that are planted there. Face what upsets you the most; it is a great teacher. Give away whatever is holding you back – insecurities, fear of failure or of not being loved, fear of being alone – and be reborn into a new state of perfection. Books

Dear Friends,
Interest in personal empowerment has never been greater than it is today. Much has been written on the subject, but a lot of it is esoteric and repetitive. That's why my friend's newly released book, Power Tools, is so valuable. In Power Tools: The Ultimate Owner's Manual For Personal Empowerment, she offers down-to-earth tips for today's seekers of growth and conscious creation of what we really want in our lives.

When you purchase Jean's new book, you can simply go to this link <http://www.jeanadrienne.com> and receive all kinds of wonderful free offers from some of the top authors in the country as her way of saying thank you. One of the wonderful gifts you will get is a free audio download by me.

My new book, "Coming Full Circle – Ancient Wisdom for a Modern World," is now available everywhere and response is just wonderful! Visit my online Retail Store at www.LynnAndrews.com/retail. While there, check out "Riding the Light Waves of 2012," the 6 CD-set of this year's Joshua Tree on the Mesa Spring Gathering, which is now available. To purchase my book, you can also go to a bookstore near you, or order online from Barnes & Noble or Amazon.com

Council's Corner

Councils Corner: A message from our Cyber Council...

In Cyber council we are deeply into the work of making our Acts of Power. We are also making sacred art which captures the essence of what our experience will be like when we have manifested them. Our new sacred task for March will be to create a Power Song which will be humming inside of us as we move through the steps to completion. All are welcome in Cyber Council, even if you are in a landed council as I am.

Cheers and namaste,
Sue Meister
