Dear Friends,

So often we look at a calendar of days as merely a symbol of the passage of time. We forget why we are on this earth. We forget that there is a reason for all of the pain and all of the struggle. We forget that we were put here on this earth to learn something. If everything were perfect in this life, we would never learn anything new. We would not be able to elevate our spirits through the events that happens to us.

Summer is about bringing those thoughts and ideas and intents we have been working on, into full growth, the 'flowering' of our thoughts. And what better way to cultivate those seeds than to sit on Mother Earth on a clear summer's night, drinking in the wisdom and love of the Universe as we traverse starry night skies in search of ourselves. After all, we are made from stars and to the stars we must return.

As Agnes Whistling Elk taught me, a person must be lifted out of their mechanical existence long enough so that change and transformation have a chance to occur. Summertime when the world around us is vibrantly alive and beckoning, gives us a never-ending flow of opportunities to escape our mechanical existence, for an hour, for a day, or every chance we get for many days at a time!

It is time now to become what you know you can be, not just what you appear to be. Sit under the stars and look at what you are and how you can change to become the magnificent being you were intended to be. Become one with Great Spirit.

Power Deck Card #15 - Transformation

The power of your intent leads you around the sacred wheel of endeavor. Begin today with trust and innocence in the early hours. Imagine a quiet pond, and see the reflection of your true self. At noon, take a moment to close your eyes and dream.

Image the transformation that this day offers you. Seek the strength and wisdom through your ability to love, to bring this transformation into action and into the words you speak. At night, give thanks for the illumination you have found. Know that the form of your intent leads you to the power of transformation. (Transformation Card, from The Power Deck-The Cards of Wisdom)
