Teaching

Dear Friends,

“My daughter,” Agnes Whistling Elk, my teacher from the Sisterhood of the Shields, said to me as she placed her hand very gently on my shoulder. “We make such a drama out of life. For some reason the human being has to develop an extraordinary ego just to exist. Because of that ego, we think we are better than the flowers, better than the animals, and the birds, and certainly better than other human beings and races that are not our own.

But in fact, life is simply life, and life is sacred. In a sense I wish I had another word for ‘sacred’. It is given to so many things that are not really special. But I think that because of the experiences you are having, you will begin to understand that there is a sacred form to everything. There is a reason, as I have said so many times, for all the pain and terror we experience as a result of the societies we live in. These societies don’t have much to do with the greater vision of existence, do they?”

Consider this card from my Power Deck to meditate with as you consider those words from Agnes.

In Love and Spirt,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Lynn". The signature is written in a dark, possibly black or dark brown, ink on a solid brown background. The letters are fluid and connected, with a prominent loop at the end of the word.

Power Deck Card #45 - Humor

Humor, fear and anger awaken the power of your will. In the juxtaposition of realities, find truth, as in the primitive positioned in the wilderness of an urban setting. See how you have chosen your illusions, as other have. And seek to feel the laughter that holds together your daily dream. Self-importance blinds you to the source of joy and humor. Awaken the power of your will and find your joy and your laughter. Awaken your sense of humor. (Humor Card, from The Power Deck - The Cards of Wisdom)
