

June 2015 – Vol. 9, Issue 6

My Dear Friend,

I come to you from the waters of Alaska. We're not on a cruise, we are on a sacred journey on the beautiful waves, and the whales and the Sisterhood are with us. I've said prayers in our sacred ceremonies, and we have dreamt in the stars.

We journeyed ashore at Skagway, and I accompanied Grandmother Elizabeth Araujo, from the Council of the Mayan Elders in Guatemala as she led an authentic Mayan Fire Ceremony. We then joined Incan Shaman Mallku in a beautiful "Shamanic Soul Ceremony." I then accompanied the travelers on the White Pass Summit Yukon Railway Excursion, which was absolutely a breathtaking panorama of mountains, glaciers, gorges, waterfalls, tunnels, trestles and historic sites.

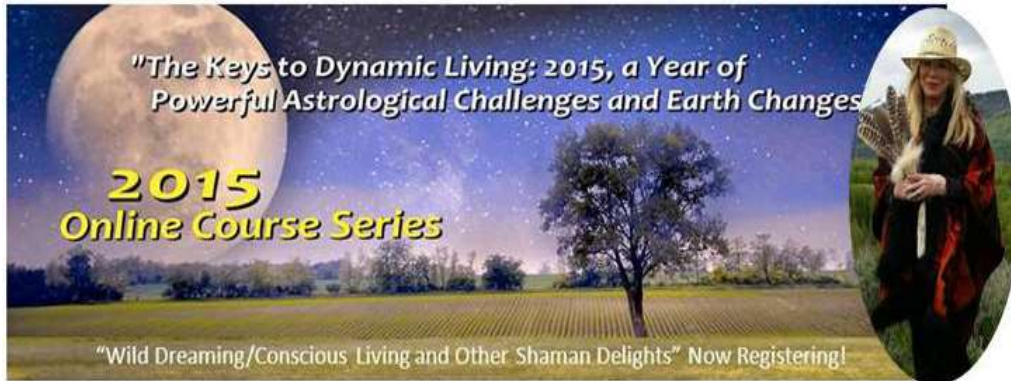

I've shared the beautiful teachings of the Sisterhood as we journeyed northward, taught the power of the Sacred Wheel, and so much more. We've journeyed to glaciers and fiords, and connected with the beautiful Alaskan people, learning about their own shamanic practices.

As I return home, my dearest hope is that each of you will take the opportunity to nourish your spirit and join me in the events and courses that I'm offering during the rest of this year. We have so much to learn together, you and I, and bringing the teachings of the Sisterhood to each one of you is very important. I so look forward to working with you!

In Spirit,

WILD DREAMING/CONSCIOUS LIVING AND OTHER SHAMAN DELIGHTS

A Four Week Online Course with Lynn Andrews

June 19 to July 15, 2015

Shamanic dreaming, as I practice and teach it, is exactly about learning to transcend the boundaries of your conscious mind through the exercise of your intent, and dreaming has been practiced by people and teachers of high degree all over the world for millenniums. You learn to walk with one foot planted firmly in the physical world and one foot in the world of spirit in order to become whole and healed within yourself. Through conscious dreaming, you rediscover the magic of your original nature, who you truly are in this world and what the great dream is for your own life. It is actually about waking up from the dream world of illusion created by our conditioning, fears, and distractions that anesthetize us. You will find yourself in the very real dream of your own sacred truth.

I truly want each of you to reclaim your original, wild nature, and move into your own power as you live a conscious life of generosity and spirit towards yourself and others. That is why I call this course Wild Dreaming and other Shaman Delights, and invite you to join me!

Have you ever dreamed of writing a book? Becoming a writer? Is there a book inside you wanting to be born? Enter into the power and majesty of your own Writing Spirit with New York Times best-selling author Lynn Andrews.

“You are a writer. Your act of power is the book or the story that you are creating.

It is now time for you to bloom.” Lynn V. Andrews

I became a writer when I found a truth within myself and then gave that truth a voice through my books. This two-year School I have designed is here to take you through your own journey of finding truth within yourself and then giving it a voice through your writing. Together, we will stretch our imaginations and explore our writing nature in bold, exciting ways. We will stretch the bounds of what we think our abilities are until finally you take down all the fences that you have allowed to stand between you and the writer you’ve always known you can be.

You will certainly feel shifted at the end of this magical journey. Experience the mystery of shamanism as you travel out of old shadows into the special light of YOUR Writing Spirit!

Celebrating Spirit at the Crossroads of Power

October 09, 2015 to October 11, 2015

Ancient traditions understood that the crossroads is a place of great power, a place where decisions are made and acted upon. In this experiential workshop with shaman healer and mystic Lynn Andrews, we learn to harness that power, to make wise choices, and to follow the path of heart. Through the practice of active dreaming, meditations, ceremony, and lectures, we:

- Journey back to our wholeness, to the vision of our soul
- Learn to work with Twin Dreamers
- Explore the sacred feminine within the crossroads of power
- Meet our power animal
- Gain new shamanic tools

Supported by the powerful energies of the Sisterhood of the Shields, a society of 44 women from various cultures worldwide, we learn to make decisions in a sacred manner, becoming warriors of spirit at the crossroads of power.

I'm so happy to tell you,

I have just finished my first children's book, something you have all been asking me about for years! It is called "Annie and the Butterfly Tree," and it is an e-book, available through Amazon.com and Kindle.

Annie is a spunky, independent little girl who finds herself in a dream world after falling into an enormous butterfly-covered tree. As she climbs through the tree, she meets and befriends a shy mouse, a playful monkey, a dancing bear and a magnificent eagle. As she ascends to the top of the great tree, Annie discovers the courage and resourcefulness inside of her. Finally, the eagle carries Annie to the top of the tree where she meets the kind and beautiful Butterfly Woman. Lavishly illustrated by Jack Lee, this book is exclusive to e-Books.

The magnificent illustrations were all done by my dear friend, Jack Lee, and it has been such a joy to create and now share this with you!
