My Dear Friends,

“You think that your life has nothing to do with any other life. This is the self-council. In self-council you must separate and become responsible for your own power. This process cuts cords that bleed your much-needed energy. When that is accomplished, a realization occurs. You open to the grand council and the great council fires within. You begin to understand that the galaxies, the mother stars, all existence, in fact, awakens within your own being. In a sense, you are all existence. You are the womb from which the stars are born. All life is your firstborn child. The trees, the flowers, and all the creatures of earth have their rootedness in your special being. It does not seem so, but it has always been that way. To know these things, the central council fires of your personal experience must be ignited, and you must warm your hands on your own inner-spirit flame.”

We live in such an interesting time in history, in what the Greeks might call the “Kairos” – that is to say “the right moment.” Rather than a metamorphosis of the gods, our modern day kairos is the transformation of the collective unconscious itself. Many of us, whether we realize it or not, chose to incarnate at this moment in human history to help birth a new way of living in Oneness with All, a sacred mission to carry the light through the darkness that seeks to envelop our species.

Life today is difficult, to be sure. But it is such an honor and a blessing to be allowed to participate in this renaissance of sorts. Tiokasin Ghosthorse tells us "This is the time when the strongest spirits will live through and those who are empty shells, those who have lost the connection will not survive."

For those of us who are walking this Path of Heart, this is the time when we must strengthen our connection with our Divine Source, with Great Spirit. Now is not the time for laziness of the soul or apathy or even fear.

The energy of Namaste must be within us, must be the way we regard and treat ourselves first. "As within, so without." Our connection with our self must be sacred, loving, and accepting of both our light and our shadow. Only then can we truly share that energy with others in the world.

Connection is a bridge between our inner vision of our self and our outward circumstances. Until we connect with our self in a balanced way, we cannot become a truthful mirror for others, and that is the essence of sacred communication.

I invite you to step into a greater understanding and knowledge of yourself, to strengthen yourself spiritually as well as physically, emotionally and mentally, in order to become that truthful mirror the world needs so desperately. I have so many ways we can work together.

Join my Mystery School – early registration is now open – and give our self an amazing gift of embracing your own beauty and healing the wounds that hold you back in your life. Join my Writing School and find your voice, discover and learn to express your own soul’s truth.

My new Online Course is registering now: “The Lodge of Connection; The Healing Power of Sacred Communication.” I offer it now because we all need to clarify our point of view in the world as it is today, to shed the labels that divide us, and step into the energy of Namaste. I look forward to working with you!

Join me this December in Hawaii as we explore “Dolphin Dreaming; Re-imagining Our Lives”, November 30 – December 4, 2016. Together we will bring the energy of Namaste into our vision for our own life, as we bask in renewal and rejuvenation on the Big Island of Hawaii. This year is going to be so special!

The Sisterhood and I created this course to be a journey for you to travel beyond the limits of your own form, and begin to discover how to connect with your Truest Self at the deepest level. Once you have created that bridge, it is an easy next step to move out into the world using the healing power of Sacred Communication, the energy of Namaste.

We will explore the role of your Second Chakra, which holds the power of relationships. We will begin to see ourselves in new, deeper ways, to create a connection with our own Sacred Self, where we strengthen our knowledge of who we are and what we stand for. You will undergo a rebirth, an initiation to move you into new discoveries about how your fears impact your ability to climb your own Tree of Dreams. Open yourself to the unusual – to learning what Silence is and how it moves you into your own stillpoint of wisdom – to discovering how to be a truthful mirror to others through the use of sacred listening – and how to do all this without giving away your own power. So join me, now, as we begin!

Dolphin Dreaming:
Re-Imagining Our Lives
With Shaman Teacher and Healer
Lynn V. Andrews
December 1st – 4th, 2016
Mauna Lani Bay Resort – Big Island, Hawaii

Is your life as fulfilling and magical as you want it to be? We work so diligently at improving ourselves, at creating the life we both desire and deserve, a life of joy and purpose. How often we find ourselves standing at yet another crossroad, wondering which path will help us to re-invent or re-imagine our life once again, to fill it with magic and love. Or maybe, you have given up on having a magical life.

If you do not believe in magic, your life cannot be magical, so how do we connect with magic? We are all searching for a connection to magic, but because it is a mysterious and intriguing part of your spiritual life, it is impossible to describe, even as it makes your life extraordinary. When we believe that we can think up magic, when we put our brain in charge of seeking out the color and strength and beauty that magic imparts in our life, we become frustrated and as we try to hold it and name it, we lose it. Magic is an aspect of our spiritual connection, it is an important part of our life as a Shaman.

Dolphins, like other Power Animals, are messengers to us, bringing the messages of magic to us. Because dolphins cannot speak our language, we must learn to tune into the images they send us in the Dreamtime. There is wisdom in their revelations that we can use to re-imagine our lives, to pull the power and magic of the Universe into our lives. Together, we will discover how to take our power, to become an antenna in the world to bring down the energy and power of the universe, bring up the power that lives within the earth, so that as mediator, standing in the middle, we begin to experience the power of magic.

The Lynn Andrews Mystery School is designed to assist women and men to increase awareness of their potentials and of how they become who they are. It is transformative. The program incorporates spiritual and mystical teachings found in Lynn's books which include spiritual concepts from many cultures and countries, for example, Native America, South America, Australia, Tibet and Japan, among others.

The program is accomplished mostly at home. Apprentices work with Mentors who are graduates of the program, as well as with Lynn. Regular contact is maintained via telephone and internet, and, if convenient, personal meetings are welcome. All Apprentices meet together twice a year for teachings and meditations and to share experiences. In 2017, these meetings will be held in Arizona.

As you begin to explore and apply shamanic teachings, you learn positive strategies to remove stress in your life and create a new emotional freedom. You discover the ancient teachings of the Feminine Divine and learn how to heal and integrate both your Sacred Masculine and Sacred Feminine Energy Shields into wholeness. Through sound, action and intention, you heal the energy centers of your body – your heart, solar plexus and chakras. This is a joyous journey, one I want to share with you.
