"A great teaching is in watching your mind process and do nothing at all. Be a stalker of the mind. Watch thoughts passing by with no judgment or moral concepts. The knack of meditation and the "rest" of the warrior spirit is to simply watch. For example: to observe this painting, feel the tone of the colors, experience the passion behind the ancient symbols, and move into the spirit from which it was created. Sense the movement of air from the humming-bird's wings and the impeccability of its nature. He is a great warrior – beyond compare – as are you. Hummingbirds are extremely territorial, passionately defending their airspace. Medicine bundles are symbols reminding the owner of our own airspace, we, too, must exude the passion, grace, and beauty of the hummingbird. The hummingbird is a defender of its territory like no other. This bird is watchful and sees you coming. Are you an ally or do you mean destructive activity? He rings a tiny bell, calling his spirit guardians to come. He quickly adjusts his shield – a silver coin representing his extraordinary worth. His predatory bird feathers hang from his power bundle for strength and for vision. He sees in you great possibilities for clear perception.

"Observe Border Patrol"
"Sacred Vision Oracle Cards"

This hummingbird is presenting itself to you for healing. What is your shield? How is your sense of worthiness? What aspects of personal power do you hold – do you dare use them? Feel the warrior that lives within you.”

My Dear Friend,

Autumn is upon us here in the northern hemisphere, and the rest of you are welcoming Spring. So many changes are happening, and Mother Nature has been so very busy over the past weeks.

Here in North America, we have experienced four major hurricanes with widespread catastrophic destruction, and Mexico is reeling from heavy earthquakes. Landslides all over the globe, flooding, terrible wildfires have all been in the news. It may feel like the elements are sending a message, but perhaps this is just Mother Nature cleansing her planet – a clearing out of the old, bringing with it the opportunity for new life and new growth.

One of my apprentices shared with me this week how 25 years ago, she and her husband lost everything they had worked for years to create – their jobs, their home, her health, and all of their security when they were on the brink of homelessness. "This was the greatest gift of my lifetime," she told me. "Stripped bare of all the things I thought defined me, I had to search deeply to find myself."

One of my apprentices shared with me this week how 25 years ago, she and her husband lost everything they had worked for years to create – their jobs, their home, her health, and all of their security when they were on the brink of homelessness. "This was the greatest gift of my lifetime," she told me. "Stripped bare of all the things I thought defined me, I had to search deeply to find myself."

As we work to support those who have lost so much, perhaps the greatest gift we can give them is the reminder to Observe, to find their inner Shield, their sense of worthiness, the personal power to be like the hummingbird and survive, rebuild with passion, grace and beauty. Several of my long time apprentices are in the throes of clean-up and rebuilding their lives after these storms. Their ability to stand in Sacred Witness as this tragedy unfolded around them will forever be an inspiration to me. They have worked so hard over the past years getting in touch with their own self-worth and learning to stand in their own power, and see the challenges ahead as opportunities to learn, to grow, and to give back. They are beacons of light in today's world, as are all of you as you step up with prayers, love and support of all kinds for those in need.

This week, my new Online Course, "The Healing Power of Your Inner Oracle; the Transformative Energy of the Sacred Vision Oracle Cards" begins! If you haven't already registered, please do!
