MARCH 2019 • ISSUE 13 • VOL 3

March; A Time of Transformation.

The new moon of March is the time of transformation for us all. A time when many of those I love have gone through the final transformation. Forgive me if this is a bit personal, but I see that what I yearn for is also a universal yearning. All the seeds that we have planted and all that we have conceived of during this past year, is taking root and awakening in our creative souls. As I have said before, this is the time of tremendous effort and real work to manifest our higher consciousness in one loving way or another into world.

We truly are light bearing shamans, those who change people. This is a season of holding up mirrors. You see the reflection of your original nature, hopefully. Set your intent to live your essence and live it with all the passion and joy you can find.

Around the fires of our Summer Gathering under the moon this year, lets dance and sing and join together in our very special treasure, the treasure of our unique community of spirit. Lets join together in the mountains of Prescott in late July and clarify our dreams. Lets avail ourselves of each others encouragement and enthusiasm and begin to truly heal ourselves so the people on this great Mother Earth can find the key to healing themselves.

As an exercise for you, first, meditate on the sun and how the sun became Ra or the great God of Light. Then meditate on what it means to realize the reflection of the sun on the moon. Why is that so powerful and how does that reflective quality relate to your own personal awareness. Become the sun and then become the moon, how does that experience or exchange relate to your personal power?

In Spirit and with so much Love,
