We Are on a Journey into Sacred Space.

All Space is Sacred.

Distance has come close. We are on a journey into Sacred Space, space enlivened by consciousness. Be of no doubt that all space is sacred, and we are seeing images of mystical and magical transition within this great world of mystery. In a sense, we stand in the center of a Truth Circle, and we are redefining the circumference and dimensions of our world. Many chapters are closing and new awareness is upon us. A new energy is flowing out of us and is attuned to the four directions. It is a coming world of communion as well as communication, and there is a profound new understanding of the great weaver goddess from the stars. There is no moment of unknown space or reality. We are responsible for the colors and the strength of this weaving. We see is now in its entirety for the first time, and the brightness is startling.

There is a connection that we feel but perhaps don't understand. It is the polarized fire within the earth, the essence of the power of the land, and the fire within ourselves, the rising flame of abstract reality and prophesy. Trust what comes to you on the waves of light and on the breath of the wind. Trust what you see and act upon it. This sounds so simple but the depths of meaning of the fire within yourself, and being able to hold that fire, is part of the reason that you were born. The Great Spirit knows who you are but you may not know yourself.

The fire that you feel within you is allowing you to break away from the imprisonment that you have often felt. Sit in meditation and write about how the fire is burning away your impediments to exquisite joy. Consider how the weaver goddess is positioned for you, holding your luminous fibers in the tapestry of your life. Describe it. Stoke that fire and warm your soul as you move up the trail to total awareness. Place your prayers and your blessings along the path, and be grateful for the great teachings that are coming to you.

Namaste. In spirit and love,
