BALANCE. Technology and Wholeness.

The New Moon of June

Dear Friends, The new moon of June is an exciting time for me because it marks the time of beginnings. Someone asked me recently if the goddess spirit of the north of the Sacred Wheel, White Buffalo Calf Woman, has anything to do with the world of plants.

Here is what I told her: White Buffalo Calf Woman is an awakener of life force, whether someone is praying with a sacred pipe or giving blessings with sweet grass. Sacred tobacco for the North American Indian people on this earth was used in ceremony to fill sacred pipe, be ignited by fire, and transformed into smoke. In the smoke is the essence of the tobacco and takes messages to Great Spirit. All the beings or gods, whoever is named, watch over all life forms, whether plants, animals, or people, or any other beings of Light.

We are in a quickening, a time of increased technology, and a linear process of learning. In the great circle of nature and the seasonal growth of life forms, beings like us need to be conscious of who we are on this journey. You may learn great things in the cybernetic meadows of this time but never forget the heart. The heart can be broken. It has nerves and a mind of its own that translates into the brain, but nevertheless it has a life of its own. For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction. In technology we tend to look away from the beauty, love, and joy. We often forget the personal journey that we are on in this world of discovery. There is an Old Wise One within each of you. Listen to the intent and the wisdom of this great being of experience within you, and remember the joy of the adventure that you are on. Not only are you expanding your brain and your abilities, but hidden between the lines of your learning is an exquisite aspect of spirit that yearns to be heard. You are on this earth walk to become a Wholeness not only pieces of a fragmented mirror that reflects only a part of the Divine Matrix. Gather all of your shards together and remember that as you talk like the Great Spirit, the Great Spirit talks like you. This is the illuminated Power of intention that actually changes the universe through you.

Make a list of all of the mechanical, technological, job related, motorized aspects of your life - from driving a car to typing on your computer or smart phone. List the things you have learned from technology and how it benefits your life. And then, in the spirit of synchronicity, list the aspects of soul and heart that have been perhaps overlooked in the teachings of technology. See if you can balance all that you are doing into a magnificent dance of wholeness.

With many blessings, my love and my dreams are with you,
