"Mastery is at hand if we just open ourselves to the possibility."

But most of us fall prey to our conditioning and our humanness – which is most likely all about “what we think we are supposed to do.” Overcoming your failings and your difficulties is part of why you are here on earth. But you must always remember, as Agnes Whistling Elk has told me so many times, that you have chosen to come here, to this life at this time and place, wherever you are at this moment in time, in order to find enlightenment.

In the Stillness...

It is always in the stillness that the world of the Great Spirit, of God, of the great Goddess presence on this earth, comes into me. In the stillness, I realize that we are in an angelic realm, that we are protected, in a way, because we are supposed to evolve into a new consciousness; we are here to become great soaring creatures who understand the balance of nature and spirit and physicality.

FEATURED GRADUATE

'I would like to introduce to you to one of my graduates from the Shaman Mystery School.' - Lynn Andrews

Chloe Gosselin

Apprentice to the teacher and shaman Lynn Andrews since 2005, I graduated from her four-year mystery school in 2010 and have been involved in her graduate school since. I did a master's degree in psychosociology at the University of Rimouski in Quebec. In my memoir, I go deeper into my personal way of accompanying human change using my experience with the Lynn Andrews Center for Sacred Arts and Training. I use shaman tools like the drum, intuitive dancing, sensual contact with nature, meditation, the medicine wheel, and expanded states of awareness using my personal creativity. In that way, I learn to choreograph energy in me and around me.

Crystal Pomeroy

After a college education in Spanish and Latin American Studies, no longer convinced her mission was to help the world through politics, Crystal was led home to the spiritual world she had been introduced to as a child. Her mother, an erudite scientist, teacher, activist, and astrologer, had sparked Crystal's interest in the esoteric arts and fueled her knowledge since childhood. By the time she was 11, adults were consulting Crystal to interpret their dreams. At age 14, she was calculating and interpreting astrological charts. That same year Crystal began her studies with several renowned teachers, including the likes of Dorothy McClean (To Hear the Angels Sing, Memoirs of an Ordinary Mystic) and Joseph Campbell (The Hero with a Thousand Faces).
